

International study seminar on

Educational Challenges in Schools: Training, Research and Teacher Professionalism

Wednesday 2nd November 2022, 9.30-13.00 and 14.30-18.00

Aula Magna, Via Filippo Re 6, Bologna

Chair: Elena Pacetti

9.30: Welcome to the participants

Prof. Raffaella Campaner, Vice Rector for International Relations, University of Bologna

Prof. Maurizio Fabbri, Director of the Department of Education Studies, University of Bologna

Dr. Chiara Brescianini, Ufficio Scolastico Regionale per l'Emilia-Romagna

Introduction of participants

9.50: Prof. Raffaella Campaner, Vice Rector for International Relations, University of Bologna

The University of Bologna and international relations: opportunities and challenges

10.05: Dr. Chiara Brescianini, Ufficio Scolastico Regionale per l'Emilia-Romagna

Statistics and inclusion in schools in Emilia-Romagna

10.20: Prof. Junie Rosales, Polytechnic University of the Philippines

The Project Forth and its spirit

10.35: Atty. Lily Freida Milla, CHED (Commission on Higher Education)

National Policies/Processes and Response to FORTH Initiative (video message)

10.45: Joselito Villaruz, President, West Visayas State University

The meaning of Project Forth to universities

11.00: Coffee break time

11.30: Prof. Stefano Piastra, Coordinator of Single Cycle Degree in Primary Teacher Education, University of Bologna

Challenges in training future Italian teachers

11.45: Dr. Anna Pileri, University of Bologna

Specialized teachers' representations, knowledge, practices of inclusion and equity

12.00: Prof. Licia Masoni, University of Bologna

Teaching EFL in a multilingual and multicultural environment: implications for teacher training

12.15: Open discussion

13:00: Lunch time

Chair: Junithesmer D. Rosales

14:30: Assoc. Prof. Dennis O. Dumrique, Polytechnic University of the Philippines

Forth projects: preparing teachers through higher Education, MAED-TCA (Master of Arts in Education with a specialization in Teaching in the Challenged Areas)

Dr. Dennis O. Dumrique

Module 5- Creation of Relevant, Accessible, Innovative, and Appropriate Teaching Materials for Challenged Areas

Assoc. Prof. Marivic N. Neri, University of Southeastern Philippines

Module 4- Teaching, Learning, and Assessment in Challenged Areas

14:50: Virginia Lopez, Polytechnic University of the Philippines; Joyce Tondo, West Visayas State University; Herminia Castillo, Centro Escolar University

Action Research in Forth: best practices

15.15: Prof. Ma. Junithesmer D. Rosales, Polytechnic University of the Philippines

Dissemination and impact of Forth

Dr. Milagros L. Borabo, Centro Escolar University

The Role of PAFTE in the Information Dissemination of Project Forth

15.45: Prof. Elena Pacetti, University of Bologna

Teacher Professional Development Research within the Centre for Educational Research on Teachers as Professionals (CERTP - CRESPI)

16.00: Coffee break time

16.30: Prof. Matteo Vittuari, Delegate for Cooperation and Development, University of Bologna

Cooperation and development at the University of Bologna

16.45: Open discussion

17.30: Conclusions and Observations

17.50: Prof. Robert Wagenar, University of Groningen, and Dr. Julia Gonzales, Education for an Interdependent World, Project Coordinators

Closing message